Connect and Disconnect

TO CONNECT

1. Set up an account with your utility company.
2. Bring the required documents for the UDWP to the FBFCU office located in the Soldier Support Center.
3. Sign the Utility Waiver agreement.
4. Bring the complete Utility Waiver agreement to the Housing Office to be faxed to your utility company.

TO DISCONNECT

1. Contact the utility company with a disconnect date and request an estimated final bill.
2. Pay your estimated final bill and bring proof of payment to the FBFCU office, located in the Soldier Support Center, in order to be cleared from the UDWP.

PLEASE NOTE: The estimated final bill may not be the final amount due. The UDWP is not a bill paying service. You are responsible for paying the final utility bill after your disconnect date.

Responsibilities and Disclosures

The UDWP is an 18-month agreement which is subject to credit approval. You are responsible for paying your utility bills, this is not a bill paying service. If you fail to pay or are late making a payment while enrolled in UDWP, you will be automatically removed from the program and are ineligible to re-enroll. You will reimburse FBFCU for any payments made on your behalf. Such payments may be transferred from your account by FBFCU. If removed from the UDWP, the utility company may charge you the original security deposit amount in order to restore your service. If FBFCU incurs any debt on your behalf, Fort Bragg Command or future duty stations will be contacted and appropriate action will be taken to collect delinquent payments. FBFCU, the Fort Bragg Housing Office, and the Fort Bragg Command will not assist with any dispute involving you and your utility company.
